

Creating
new forms of work together

Smart is the cooperative for freelancers, creatives and artists: We create sustainable working conditions together. As an open cooperative, we strive for an efficient and self-sustaining structure based on our growing, solidarity-minded community.

Smart PRODUCTION

Freelancing with all the advantages of regular employment? SmartProduction makes it possible.

Independent and socially secure

Manage your projects via Smart and you can be employed by the coop. Your work is self-determined and backed by a strong community.

Timely payment

We pay your salaries and fees immediately as due, regardless of delayed or failed payment on the part of the contractor – making for easier planning.

Minimized risk

Smart assumes the financial risk not only by guaranteed payment but it also provides full failure liability when necessary.

COSTS

Cooperative share: a one-time € 50,-

Less paperwork

Smart issues invoices on your behalf and processes payments: fees, salaries, expenses and all licensing rights and royalties.

Stay on top of things

All documents are safely stored in our secure cloud system for easy twenty-four-hour access.

Well cared for, well advised

Ask us anything! The Smart Team has extensive know-how in all matters that are important to you. If necessary, we consult our legal advisors and tax offices.

SmartProduction: 10% of order's net amount
